Welcome Members to this edition of "The Branch"

P ANZAC Day 2023 was again a special Day for Veterans in Hervey Bay. It was pleasing to see the large number of veterans marching at both services.

R The numbers at the Dawn Service were the biggest I have seen in my 30 years attending ANZAC Day in Hervey Bay.

E Once again, a special thank you to the residents of the area for supporting the veterans on this special day.

S The terrace on the western side of the memorial enhanced the area greatly and the fact that after the main march everybody on the terrace could sit down, was convenient and more comfortable. Again, I would like to thank the Queensland Government Gambling Community Benefit Fund and the Special Projects team from Fraser Coast Regional Council for their dedication to completing the project on time and with a great result.

I The next commemoration service is "Rimau" at Dayman Park on Sunday 9th July 2023 commencing at 1000hrs.

D On this theme I had the pleasure of meeting with Allan Russell who was in the Bay from Sydney. Allan will turn 100 in October. Please see article on page 14.

E The day-to-day running of the Sub-Branch is progressing well and as you will know, no day is the same.

N The Pension and Wellbeing section can be contacted on 07 4184 9496 Monday to Friday between 0900-1500hrs at 19-21 Torquay Rd Pialba on the 2nd floor. Outside of these hours, please contact the SMC reception for the after-hours phone number.

T My door is always open for any member to come and have a chat or if you have a grievance, I will listen.

Until next issue stay safe and healthy

Brian Tidyman

Join Australian soldiers, Stan and Billy, in their stubborn resistance against an overwhelming World War II Japanese force in Papua New Guinea as the Australians fight a tactical withdrawal along the Kokoda Track. The strategies and tactics used in this withdrawal created one of the most famous actions in the annals of Australian military history and was to have a major impact on the collective psyche of all Australians.

Follow the magnitude of this impact as it played out on the streets of Brisbane. Link arms with Carol and Jean, two sisters who experience love and tragedy while struggling to fulfil their duties as waitresses in the Victory Café. Experience the full effect that tens of thousands of allied troops had on their home city of Brisbane.

Put yourself in the middle of the Battle of Brisbane - a brief battle that broke out between Australian and American servicemen, which highlighted the tension that existed between these two allied forces.

At war's end, you will realise how it was that this generation was able to face their future with such confidence and certainty as they built the foundations of the modern Australia that we all enjoy today.

Product description

Review

"Graphic descriptions of the horror of war are starkly contrasted to the quiet life of Carol and Jean back home. The author takes us with him on a journey of damaged minds, recovery, race relations and romance. A meaningful look at war, and its aftermath."

- Judith Filcroft, author of Walk Back in Time

About the Author

Kenneth Price is a Vietnam War veteran. When he was seventeen, he enlisted in the Australian Army and was trained as a medic. He was sent to Vietnam in 1968 and served with 8th Field Ambulance and 1st Australian Field Hospital. His grandfather served in the Royal Australian 9th Battalion in France from 1916 to 1918, and Kenneth's father served in the Australian Army during World War II. Kenneth's uncle also served as a bomber pilot in World War II and he was killed when his plane was shot down in 1944. After returning from Vietnam, Kenneth married and went to university where he graduated with an Arts degree (with Distinction), majoring in History and Literature. He also has a Bachelor of Education and a Masters (with Distinction) in Australian Political History. Kenneth spent fourteen years teaching History and English at Brisbane Grammar School and eight years as a lecturer in English in Singapore, where he helped his students obtain their 'O' and 'A' level certificates from Cambridge University. Writing has always been his passion and following retirement he was inspired to research his family's military history. This led to writing his first book, Broken Lives, which covers some of the exploits of his grandfather's 9th Battalion, and now his second book, Kokoda Mist, covers his father and mother's generation. Kenneth has six children and eleven grandchildren. He is currently married to his second wife, Luz, and lives in Henley Bay, Queensland.

Recently I had the pleasure of meeting up with Allan Russell who this year turns 100 and is acknowledged as the last surviving member of the Z Force from WWII.

I spent about half an hour talking with him (only because he was on a tight schedule) but the state of his mind for his age was absolutely incredible.

Being typical ex-service there was no "warries" as such but we did speak about a lot of things such as that during training, he trained on Fraser Island as well as along the Hawkesbury River in NSW.

After the war he became a geologist and worked in Australia, New Guinea and Canada.

Allan still lives alone in his house in Sydney and he marched in this year's ANZAC Day parade in Sydney.

It was an incredible experience to chat with Alan and this gives me hope that we can all look forward to having a sound mind at such an age!
